

The Queenslander Pictorial.

RED BLUFF AND GLACIER ROCK.
CAIRNS RAILWAY.

Edw. Ryan photo.

ON THE WEST FRONT IN FRANCE.

Climbing up the side of a sunken road on a tank.

German prisoners bringing in their wounded and carrying their belongings. They have evidently come to stay. Central News

"OUT WEST WHERE THE STARS ARE BRIGHTEST."

Annual of Boulder Mail Coach at Granddango Post Office.

Hewer's Plant leaving Granddango for the Northern Territory.

Camels loaded with water for Dry Stage en route for the Wolfram fields in Northern Territory.

Team of 12 camels loaded with 20 tons of water for the Wolfram fields, Northern Territory.

Camels travelling through Granddango to Market (Driver Shepherds in charge)

Photos by
A. Richards

Granddango, N.W. Territory
(The main wash-hall for travelling stock)

BLOTTED OUT

British official photo.

Aerial photographs of an enemy village taken (above) before and (below) after a prolonged bombardment by British artillery. Note the obliteration of all natural features.

MONDAY'S GREAT VICTORY CELEBRATION IN
BRIDGEMAN. SEE PAGE 23

Total photo

